

Sommelier Mixed Pack $179

A carefully chosen mix of wines from boutique quality craft producers that will account for a lot of drinking pleasure, while discovering new up and coming labels and varietals

Bowerbird Viognier 2023, Geelong Vic

'young gun of wine' Top winemaker finalists Kirrily Gordon has 23 years of winemaking experience, a degree in Ag Science from University of Melbourne and a couple of vintages in France and Italy. Her Viognier was inspired by a then newly found love of Condrieu in the Northern Rhône. Fragrant with a good acid balance punctuating the richer pallet tendency of Viognier.

Dog Point Sauvignon Blanc 2023 Marlborough NZ

I never thought I would promote a NZ Sauvignon Blanc but yet again there are different kinds of Savvys and this is a leading example from the cool Awatere valley. Handpicked and fermented mostly with indigenous yeast by one of the best winemaking team in the region. Juicy and fleshy, nice textural approach finishing clean and dry.

La Chablisienne 'Pas si' Petit Chablis, 2022 Burgundy France

La Chablisienne dates back from 1923 and is a grower-owned cooperative that creates top-quality wines. As the name implies 'not so small' Chablis as the quality is higher than its label status. Citrus notes complemented by a refreshing vegetable hint. It then develops into a mineral touch. On the palate, the wine is tonic, salivating, with a good length.

Bernard Metrat Chiroubles 'La Scandaleuse' 2020, Beaujolais France

A very successful Domaine, the wines are generously perfumed, ample and expressive of their terroirs. 60-year-old vines on granitic soil – if that doesn't say everything! Rich cherry and red fruit aromas with a touch of aniseed and exotic spices. A shining example of Chiroubles.

Bowerbird Nebbiolo 2022, Pyrenees Vic

From the Malakoff site, well known as one of the best patch of dirt in the region for Nebbiolo expression. Dried Autumn leaves and fresh bailed hay underpinned by kirsch cherries and sweet spices. enticing with fine long tannins.

Nick Spencer P.A.R. Malbec, Gundagai NSW

One of NSW's most decorated winemakers and the most outspoken advocate for the region's potential. From a 650 m elevation vineyard and matured in sandstone amphoras. incredibly fragrant aromas of blueberries and dried herbs so typical of Malbec. The palate is juicy and dense with lovely silky tannins.
