

November Mixed Dozen

Dal Zotto Pucino NV Prosecco

Pale straw, vivid green youthful hue; tantalizing hints of fresh cut pear, citrus blossom and a mere suggestion of spice jump out and present themselves on the bouquet; the palate is soft, appealing, approachable and basically a whole lot of fun, with gentle bubbles and alcohol combining seamlessly, and offering the maximum amount of freshness for a drink early, enjoy and not necessarily in moderation style of sparkling wine; a spot on example of Prosecco.

Ad Hoc 'Nitty Gritty' Pinot Grigio 2019

Aromas of peach, pear and lime with pulpy citrus characters follow through onto the palate. An intensely fragrant bouquet of pear, with chalky mineral undertones. Tangy acidity and lively dried herb undertones work well to culminate good length and strength to the wine.

Pikes 'Traditionale' Riesling 2019

Crisp acid driven wine, plenty of fresh lime and other citrus flavours. A powerful backbone of mouth-watering acidity keeps it all in check finishing with perfect balance and great length. Extremely bright and aromatic, this wine jumps out of the glass with fragrant white floral and kaffir lime characters.

La Linea Tempranillo Rosé 2018

It's fiesta time! This Spanish gem is impressive and stylish. Vibrant strawberry and floral aromas introduce a palate full of apple and red berry fruit and savoury notes. It's clean and mouth-wateringly dry. Think Turkish delight and you're in the ballpark.

O'Leary Walker Shiraz 2016

Vibrant red/purple colour with great concentration. Rich and powerful red fruits. Blackberry, plums and black olives with an elegant mocha chocolate and cedary spice. Concerted and seamless. Complex integrated oak with juicy black forest fruits with lingering chalky tannins.

Chapel Hill The Parson Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

Deep red/purple colour with a crushed green leaf, dried herb and blueberry aroma, the palate medium to full-bodied and quite firm in its tannins. It's quite a fruit-driven style of modest complexity
